Subject: final BERA posted

The final BERA, and the draft final BERA comment resolution table, have been posted to the LWG's portal for EPA's approval at:

PHCP Files | Documents Under Review | 2013-04-01_Final BERA

There are four types of files: redline Word/Excel; redline PDFs; clean Word/Excel; clean PDFs. All files that have both redline and clean versions have an extension (either "_redline" or "_clean") to distinguish them from the other version. Any file that does not have either extension at the end of the file name did not have any redlined changes. In addition to the BERA and attachments, we've posted the table of EPA comments, LWG responses and final negotiated resolutions of EPA's comments on the draft final BERA.

The changes between the draft final and final BERA reflect the negotiated resolutions of EPA's comments on the draft final BERA. I will be happy to answer any questions about the posted files.

John
